DIAL

An aerial photograph of a large industrial facility, likely a steel mill or manufacturing plant. The complex consists of several large, multi-story brick buildings with numerous windows. A prominent feature is a tall, dark smokestack in the center. The buildings are surrounded by a dense forest of trees. In the foreground, there is a large, open area that appears to be a parking lot or a cleared field. The overall scene is captured from a high angle, providing a comprehensive view of the industrial site and its surroundings.

dedication

A broadening of our knowledge of music has been one of the outstanding experiences of our college life. Through one man's love and understanding of this art, we have gained an appreciation which will remain with us and help to enrich our lives.

*To you, without whose direction this enrichment
would have been impossible;
To you, whose guidance has helped us in many
phases of college life;
To you, our teacher, advisor, and friend.
JAMES P. SAVAS, we dedicate our yearbook.*

You better live your best and act your best and think your best today; for today is the sure preparation for tomorrow and all the other tomorrows that follow.

*May every soul that touches mine —
Be it the slightest contact —
Get therefrom some good;
Some little grace; one kindly thought;
One aspiration yet unmet;
One bit of courage
For the darkening sky;
One gleam of faith
To brave the thickening ills of life;
One glimpse of brighter skies
Beyond the gathering mists —
To make this life worthwhile . . .*

Mrs. Ruth R. Herring

As students leave Framingham, so too do our faculty members. This June, after many years as teacher and head of the art department, Mrs. Ruth R. Herring is retiring.

Mrs. Herring, in addition to having been advisor to the Dial, has also been advisor to all of us on the hill, students and faculty alike, in all projects involving design and decoration.

Mrs. Herring, although we of the Class of 1960 are proud to have you as a member of our graduating class, we regret, along with those who remain on the hill, that you are leaving Framingham.

..... The Juniors, finally beginning to come close to the realization of their professional goals.

..... The Sophomores with the most difficult phase of college behind them and a greater realization of what is to come.

..... The Freshmen with a great adjustment to make, but with a dream of the four wonderful years ahead of them.
